WHERE BIBLES ARE MADE.

The American Bible Society is primarily an agency for the distribution of the Scriptures, but incidentally it is also a publishing house on an extensive scale. Nearly half of the bibles are printed at the Bible House in New York, but those in the Asiatic languages are printed at Constantinople, Turkey; Beirut, Syria; Bangkok and Chungking, Siam; Shanghai, Cheong, Fanchow and Hongkong, China; and Yokohama, Japan. Most of the presses doing this part of the work belong to the different missions, but the expense of manufacture is met by the American Bible Society.

The presses in some of the countries of Asia were not able during 1913 to print the Scriptures fast enough to meet the needs of the colporteurs and missionary societies in those countries. New printing centers might well be established in the East in order to meet the increasing demand for the Bible.

THAT'S ALL!

"Please state to the court exactly what you did between 8 and 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning," said a lawyer to a delicate little woman in the witness box.

"Well," she said after a moment's reflection, "I washed my two children and got them ready for school, and sewed a button on Johnny's coat and mended a rent in Nellie's dress. Then I tidied up my sitting room and made two beds, and watered my plants and glanced over the morning paper. The parlor was then dusted and I set to rights the things in it, and washed some lamp chimneys and combed my baby's hair, and sewed a button on one of her little shoes. Then I swept my outside steps and brushed and put away the children's Sunday clothes, and wrote a note to Johnny's teacher asking her to excuse him for not being to school on Friday. Then I fed my canary and brushed off the breakfast table and gave the grocery boy his order, and then I sat down and rested a few minutes before the clock struck 9. That's all!"

"All!" said the dazed lawyer. "Excuse me, your honor, while I get my breath, before calling the next witness."

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS

Ignorance is not innocence, but sin. Browning.

Profits are legitimate only when they come from service.—Woodrow Wilson.

If I knew you and you knew me—If both of us could clearly see, And with an inner-light divine The meaning of your heart and mine, I'm sure that we would differ less And clasp our hands in friendship; Our thoughts would pleasantly agree If I knew you and you knew me. —Nixon Waterman.

The past is usually the enemy of cheerfulness, and cheerfulness is a most precious attainment.—Arnold Bennett.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.—Is. 9:12.

The truth that yesterday was mine, is larger truth today; Its face has aspects more divine, its kinship fuller away.

For truth must grow as ages roll, and God looms large upon the soul. —Anon.

Remember on every occasion which leads thee to vexation, to apply this principal that this is not a misfortune, but that to bear it nobly is good fortune.—Marcus Aurelius.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

Many young men say that they cannot save any money. Did it ever occur to you that most young men who make money, but never have any ten dollar bills in their pockets at the end of the month, are always found in the same class with those who have nothing to do when the day is over, nothing to occupy their minds, and are usually seen loafing on the streets at night? They go in search of amusement and as soon as they receive their pay checks, soon part with their money, and the result is that a year is soon gone and they are prepared to hold no better position than they were twelve months before. Furthermore, they have saved no money, and many of them are in debt.

Invest Your Money.

The best way to save money is to invest it. If you have nothing but your salary to depend upon, and it is only thirty, forty, or fifty per month, the very best thing you can do is to invest a portion of that in a business education. Take a shorthand course and it will help double your earning power, if you will keep busy and improve yourself. Become a good stenographer and you will have no trouble in securing employment. Do you know a young man who is a good stenographer, but unable to find employment? I don't mean one who only knows enough to write "Dear Sir," and "Yours truly," and trusts memory to fill in the rest of it; I mean one who knows how to take dictation, transcribe it accurately, and write a letter upon which his employer could look with pride.

A Good Investment.

You can be just such a stenographer if you will take my shorthand course and follow my instruction. I will teach you six months, five nights in the week, two hours a night, for $30.00. If you are one of the young fellows who cannot save money, you can readily see that you will spend much more than $5.00 per month foolishly by having nothing to do, and that this is a real business proposition. I will help you save some of your money and invest it in a business education. I am an experienced teacher of shorthand and typewriting and you will receive first-class instructions. My class will begin the course November 15th. I have made no effort to secure students among the young ladies of the city, as they can learn shorthand at the I. I. and

Picayunes certainly have a taste all their own

They're extra mild.
They're extra mellow.

And no wonder!

The tobacco used in Picayunes is peculiarly good. And it is kept good because we allow it to age naturally so that its delicious mildness and full character is retained in Picayunes.

You'll find that Picayunes have a good taste that no other cigarette has quite been able to attain.

SEVEN KILLED BY TRAIN.

Detroit, Oct. 27.—Seven members of one family were killed in an eighth was fatally injured today when a Grand Trunk passenger train hit an automobile at Fraser, 16 miles from Detroit. The dead are Mrs. R. Stoldt, her five daughters, and Miss Minnie Engel, a sister of Mrs. Stoldt. William Stoldt, a farmer of Troy, the husband and father, was the only one of the family left alive. Physicians say he cannot live.

There were no witnesses to the accident. Apparently Stoldt, who was driving the automobile, did not see or hear the train, and drove the machine on the crossing directly in front of the locomotive. The train was stopped and the crew gathered up the bodies, scattered along the right of way, a distance of a quarter of a mile.

AGAINST USING CALOMEL

The sickening, nauseating feeling that follows the use of calomel is the natural result of disarranging your entire system. Doctors everywhere are agreeing that the action of calomel is much too strong, and leaves the body sick and weakened.

LIV-VER-LAX is a wonderful substitute for calomel, that has all of its good effects and none of its bad ones. It acts soothingly but thoroughly on the liver, cleansing it of bile, and ridding the entire system of stagnating poison.

LIV-VER-LAX is strictly a harmless vegetable compound, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money will be refunded. Insist on the original, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby. For sale here at 50c and $1.00 at John Laws.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made By Many Columbus Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right. A Columbus resident tells you how. Mrs. F. Callender, of 1236 Fifth Ave., S., Columbus. "I believe ever-taxing myself brought on the trouble. I was confined to my bed for six months at one time and was so helpless that I couldn't raise my head from the pillow. Kidney disease had undermined my health. I had pain and soreness across my kidneys, and didn't sleep well at night. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me a lot of annoyance. I was a physical wreck. Dizzy spells came over me and I felt as though I was going to faint. I took doctor's medicine but suffered just as badly as ever. My feet became so swollen that I couldn't put on my shoes and other parts of my body bloated. While in this condition, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and 2 boxes cured me. I can truly say that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Callender has. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Can He Find You Here?"

That's the question—an important one, too.

If he can, it may be the beginning of a profitable business association for you.

If he can't—you lose.

If you haven't a Bell Telephone he won't jump on a car or walk a block to come to you; there are plenty of others who cater to telephone trade.

For business sake have a Bell Telephone. Then advertise your business in the Bell Telephone Directory where it is seen thousands of times a day by people who are able to buy what you have to sell.
